Ⅰ. Application Information

1 | Notices

① In principle, all documents shall be submitted in the original form, and if a photocopy is submitted inevitably, the original one must be presented and confirmed by a staff responsible for admission.

② In the case of incomplete documents or failure to pay an application fee, the application will not be accepted. Applicants from a language program of the School of Language Education (SLE) at GNU may submit photocopies of the required documents that were submitted at the time of a language program admission. In this case, the photocopies shall be verified by the SLE.

③ In principle, the application fee shall not be returned. However, it may be partially refunded for those who fail to pass the first screening stage (eligibility review), and the banking fee can be deducted from the refunded money. If the banking fee exceeds the returned application fee, it will not be returned.

④ The screening and decision-making process will not be released and any of the submitted documents will not be returned. Even if not successfully admitted, applicants are not allowed to ask for a return of any submitted documents under any circumstances.

⑤ Applicants are required to put accurate and valid contact information in their application form because GNU may try to reach them during the screening period. If an applicant fails to be reached by GNU, they should be responsible for any disadvantages caused by a change of contact number, contact interruption, not checking admission results, or failure to follow immigration procedures.

⑥ Applicants are advised to regularly visit GNU's webpage (https://www.gnu.ac.kr/international/main.do) to check some important notices and changes regarding admissions.

⑦ This guide is written both in Korean and English. If there is any difference in interpretation, the Korean version shall be only considered.

⑧ Admission will be canceled if it is confirmed that the documents are falsely submitted or an applicant is admitted by other improper means.

⑨ If a successfully admitted applicant fails to enter Korea due to visa refusal or delay before a semester begins, their admission may be canceled.

⑩ An admission result will be available on GNU's website and admitted applicants should pay the tuition to a designated bank account in time.

⑪ Applicants who receive admissions from multiple universities including GNU must enroll in one university only. In case of more than one enrollment, all admissions may be canceled.

⑫ New students are advised to stay in a GNU dormitory for their first semester.

⑬ All international students must subscribe to national health insurance during their school years. Applicants who do not have national health insurance will be rejected visa extension and change, and banned from school scholarships and any benefit programs offered by GNU.

⑭ Applicants who have submitted a certificate of expected graduation/completion at the time of application must submit a certificate of graduation before the first semester begins.

⑮ New students are not allowed to take a leave of absence in their first semester. However, a leave of absence caused by military service, infection, or disease may be allowed.

⑯ Matters other than those specified in this Admission Guide are subject to GNU regulations.
