A. Nationality recognition

- Foreigner means a person who does not have the nationality of the Republic of Korea.
- Multiple nationalities are not recognized as foreigners
- Both parents and students are recognized when acquiring foreign nationals before the start of the curriculum corresponding to the Korean high school curriculum.
- If parents and students renounce (lose) their Korean nationality, they must submit a certificate of loss of nationality.

- If only one of the fathers or mothers is the obligor for support, only the nationality of the obligor for support is reflected (must be confirmed with government-issued documents)
- If there are any unusual circumstances related to family relations and nationality (divorce, remarriage, unmarried, death, disappearance, acquisition of Korean nationality, etc.), submit government-issued documents proving them.

B. Academic background recognition

- In principle, the period of study in elementary, middle and high school is based on the Korean education system.
- Grades 1 to 6 of the overseas curriculum are considered elementary schools, grades 7 to 9 are considered middle schools, and grades 10 to 12 are considered high schools (however, whether or not to recognize high school graduation from overseas high schools is based on the domestic regular high school system). Determined by comprehensively considering the school system and semester of each country)
- In the case of applicants from countries where the elementary, middle and high school education system is less than 12 years, the Minister of Education
Only those who have completed all of the foreign curricula recognized as equivalent to the curricula are recognized as having the same qualifications as high school graduates.
- Among high school graduates who fail to obtain high school graduation qualifications before the date of admission to this school, acceptance (admission) will be cancelled.
- In the case of a (professional) bachelor's degree in China, an academic certificate issued by the Ministry of Education must be submitted.
- Domestic/overseas qualification exams, home schooling, cyber learning, etc. are not recognized as academic backgrounds as graduation qualifications or application qualifications.

C. Language Proficiency recognition (Arts and Physical Education)
